

Hakuba Valley has joined The Mountain Collective from 2015-16 season !

【What is Mountain Collective?】

- World-class premier ski resorts in Americas, Australia, and Japan ally to offer our customers a great opportunity to enjoy the best ski resorts in the world.
- Started in 2012 with four resorts, The Mountain Collective continues to expand with strict scrutiny in terms of scale and quality as a world class ski resort... Now comprised of 11 ski resorts.
 - World renowned ski resorts, including three Winter Olympic hosted ski resorts; Hakuba Happo-One (1998 Nagano), Whistler Blackcomb (2002 Vancouver) 、 Squaw Valley (1960)
 - Largest ski resorts alliance with collectively 18,000 ha skiable terrain, 350 lifts, and 1,900 courses, and with top class snow/resort quality

【Benefits for Hakuba Valley ALL Area Season Pass holders】

- Hakuba Valley ALL Area Season Pass holders receive 50% off tickets (maximum 5 days per pass holder) at each Mountain Collective resort.
- NO BLACKOUT DATES.

【Benefits for Mountain Collective Pass holders/Season pass holders at other resorts】

- Hakuba Valley and other TMC offers 2 (two) lift tickets at each resort to 2015/16 Mountain Collective pass holders (Adult $379USD, Children (12yrs & under) $99 USD).
- Plus 50% off all additional days and Special Mountain Collective lodging deals at full partner resorts (excl. Hakuba Valley and Valle Nevado).
- 50% off tickets (maximum 5 days per pass holder) for top-tier season pass holders of any Mountain Collective resorts.
- NO BLACKOUT DATES.

For more detail, please refer <http://mountaincollective.com/> or reach out to Hakuba Valley Management Committee info@hakubavalley.jp

Mountain Collective – 11 destination resorts

Whistler Blackcomb (BC, Canada)

Hosted Vancouver Olympic in 2010. Boast plenty snowfall and the longest ski season in North America. 125km away from Vancouver.

Banff-Lake Louise-Sunshine (AB Canada)

Located in Canadian Rockies, UNESCO World Heritage Site. Three mountains offer astounding scenic beauty and power snow. 90min from Calgary.

Alta Snowbird (UT, USA)

Consistently recognized for numerous “bests”, incl. snow quality, variety of terrain, accessibility, value and steeps. 50km from Salt Lake City.

Aspen Snowmass (CO, USA)

4 mountains with one of most prestigious resort towns in North America. Also famous for award-winning terrain park and world-class events.

Jackson Hole (WY, USA)

A gateway to the world renowned national parks of Grand Teton and Yellowstone, with a genuine “Last of the Old West Atmosphere”

Mammoth (CA, USA)

One of the top three most frequented ski resorts in US. With highest elevation in CA, Mammoth boasts most snowfall and top snow quality

Squaw Valley/Alpine Meadows (CA, USA)

Hosted Squaw Valley Olympics in 1960. Wide variety of terrains from expansive mountaintop beginner area to unrivalled expert steeps and bowls.

Sun Valley (ID, USA)

Founded in 1936 as America’s first destination ski resort, Sun Valley in the Idaho mountains is a four-season resort

Thredbo (Australia)

Australia’s premier alpine resort. Boasts the country’s best snow with highest lifted point, almost double the vertical drop of any other Australian resorts

Valle Nevado (Chille)

South America’s foremost ski resort,, offering largest terrain and most modern lifts in the continent. Located in the Andes Mountains. 90min from Santiago.

HAKUBA VALLEY (Nagano, Japan)

Japan’s premier ski resorts , hosted 1998 Nagano Olympics. Grand New “Hakuba Valley All Area Season Pass” (launched from 2015-16 season) enables customers to enjoy 941ha of skiable terrain, 144 ski trails, 110 lifts in one pass. People from all over the world are increasingly amazed at our world class snow quality and course varieties.